

TAKE ONE PHOTO

We can learn a great deal from old photographs even if we do not know very much about them.

Have a look at this photo and discuss what you think you can tell from it.

- When was it taken?
- Where was it taken?
- Who might these people be?
- Look at their clothes – any clues?
- Is this a happy occasion?
- Can you spot anything interesting?
- Where's Myer?

You could

- Add speech bubbles to some of the people
- Imagine what might have just happened or what might happen next
- Use the picture to write a story or a play script
